People, people who need people
Are the luckiest people in the world.
We're children needing other children
And yet, letting our grown up pride
Hide all the need inside,
Acting more like children, than children.

Linda Maria Arellano

Many years and many times go by you, never ceasing to take and hold these minutes is my wish, to never lose, to never release them from my reach but like snow turns to water, like night turns to day, my life slips from my reach.

Elizabeth Maria Basile

As time goes on, I realize just what you mean to me, and now, now that you're near promise your love that I've waited to share and dream of our moments together. Colour my world with hope of loving you.

I'm sailing away
Set an open course for the
Virgin Sea
For I've got to be free
Free to face that's Ahead of me . . .

Styx

I wish you all the love in the world,
But most of all, I wish it from myself.
My life will be filled with sunshine
If I can get you to smile
Before I leave.

Jane Brindamour

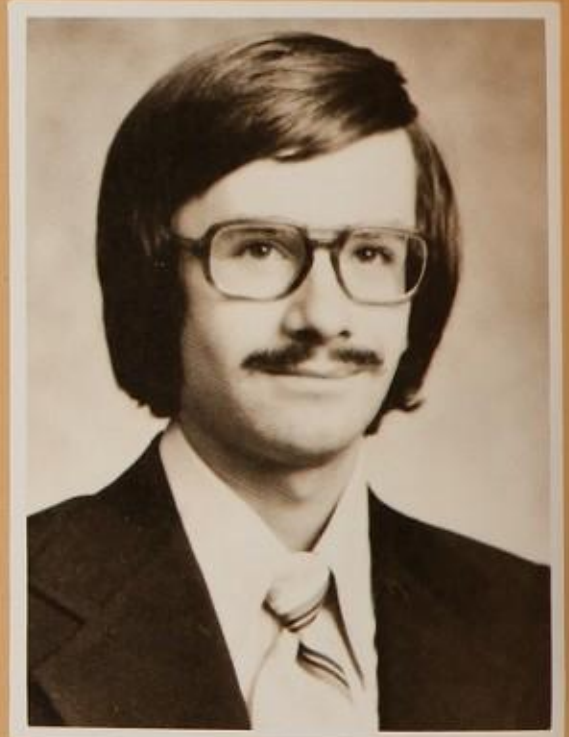

Our moments together are limited
Our memories are strong
Life will separate us
We all know
But always remember one thing:
memories live on forever!

feels.

Debra Jane Chocek

Rainbows of time
Always flow through my mind
In my heart is love
Near my soul above
But promise me something:
Of a happy dream . . . that
When we part, you'll keep that
Smile in your heart.

Diane Lynne Clark

It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye.

Dan Corber

The past is gone
It went like dusk to dawn
Isn't that the way
Everybody's got their dues
in life to pay.

Dream on . . . Aerosmith

Heather Corrie

The moments of love so rare and so true
I looked for a friend I found it in you
Everything's beautiful in it's own way
So I'll say goodbye till another day
We'll each persue our hopes and dreams
Go chasing rainbows and golden streams
But don't be so sad dear when we part
For you'll stay forever within my heart.

Ken Desjardins

I cried a tear, You wiped it dry.
I was confused, You cleared my mind
Somehow you needed me.
You held my hand when it was cold,
When I was lost, You took me home,
You gave me hope when I was at the end,
And turned my lies back into truth . . .
You even called me Friend.

Cynthia A. Curioso

Successfully to accomplish any task it is necessary not only that you should give it the best there is in you, but that you should obtain for the best there is in those under your guidance.

Diane Lynn Domingue

As my life goes on, I believe
Somehow somethings changed.
Something deep inside, part of me.
There's a strange new light in my eyes.
Things I've never known.
Changing my life, changing me.
Mom and Dad "I love you."

Suzanne C. Davis

Memories hold close to us
All that means most to us.

I think of childhood friends
— and the dreams we had.

Styx

Though the distances divide us
There's a paradise inside us
We can't lose
Me and you
Dance a "pas de deux"
Forever
And I pray you never
Shed your dancing shoes . . .

Connie Emilia Fonnegra

I realize time and distance will separate us in life. We each will take a different road and I will take with me the times I've spent with you and these memories will live on forever in my heart for they've made me ever so happy.

Mary Ann Ford

I can't be contented, with yesterday's glory
I can't live on promises, from winter to spring

Too slow for those who wait;
Too swift for those who fear;
Too long for those who grieve;
Too short for those who rejoice;
But for those who love,
Time is not.

Henry Van Dyke

Patricia Lohmuller

Even though we may never stop time,
Memories of these days will remind us, time
sure flies when you're having fun!

Caryn Lynn Maguire

Life — a sweeter, stronger, fuller more gracious thing for the friend's existence, whether near or far. If the friend is close at hand, that is best; but if far away, he is still there to think of, wonder about, to hear from, to share life and experience with, to honor, to admire, and to love.

Patricia Marinelli

I know this super highway
This bright familiar sun
I guess that I'm the lucky one.
So long,
Hey thanks my friends
I guess I'll try my luck again.

Steely Dan

Marie L. Maurer

I was a child who lived for today
My eyes full of sunshine
My heart full of smiles
I was a child for a day.
We're getting older as time goes by
A little older with everyday
We were the children of yesterday

Susan McDonough

Can the child within my heart rise above.
Can I sail through the changing ocean tides.
Can I handle the seasons of my life. Cause
I've been afraid of changing . . .

Melynda McLaughlin

They tried to cast me in their mold but I just had to say that I'm ok
Yes, I'm ok this way.

Jackie McManus

Still glaring from the city lights
Into paradise I soared
Unable to come down
For reasons I'd ignored
Total confusion — disillusion
New things I'm knowing

If I leave here tomorrow
Would you still remember me?
For I must be traveling on now
'Cause there's too many places
I've got to see . . .
I'm as free as a bird now —
This bird you'll never chain.

Ronnie Van Zant

Vic Padilla

Growin', Growin', Changin' every day
Knowin', Showin', all my wordly ways
Hear the chimes, hear how they ring,
Marking time all through the day
Light the fire, start the day, Mark the light that shows the way
Changing times of fortunes past, We will all be free at last.

Sara Parker

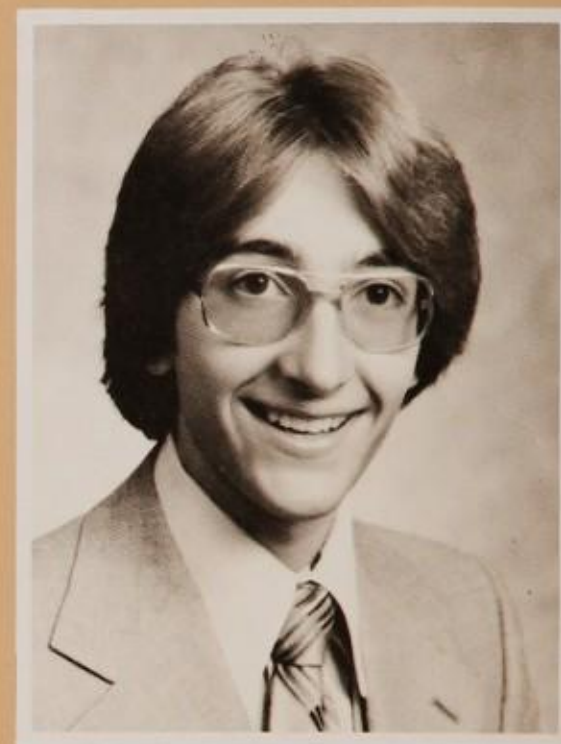

They tell me I'm crazy but I have a good time
I'm just looking for clues at the scene of the

Life's been good to me so far —

The pictures I'm going to paint will last
For men not born to scan,
I don't need any to show me how,
Or change my drawing, then or now,
The man doesn't paint who would like to paint,
But the man, I guess, that can.

Denise Michelle

Time it was
And what a time it was, It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences,
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph,
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

Renee Rauso

Soon we'll be away from here.
Step on the gas

To be closer to believing
To be just a breath away
On the death of inspiration
I would buy back yesterday
But there's no crueler illusion
There's no sharper coin to pay
As I reach out . . . it slips away.

Walk the line, it's not easy I must stand

It's the kind of a life I have chosen right or

Anywhere, Anytime, in my mind I know

Where ever I go.

Frances Ridley Havergal

Rob Wesley

In a strap, feel a strap
Holding still. Pinned for kill.
Chances narrow that I'll make it.
Pressures building, can't take more!
My headaches charge. My earaches roar.
In the rain.
Get me out of this rain!

Genesis

Toby Wiik

Drifting with the tide
Never quite knowing why
Sometimes it makes
No sense at all
There was too much
Growing to do
We had a good time
And it ain't over yet.

Peter Wirsching

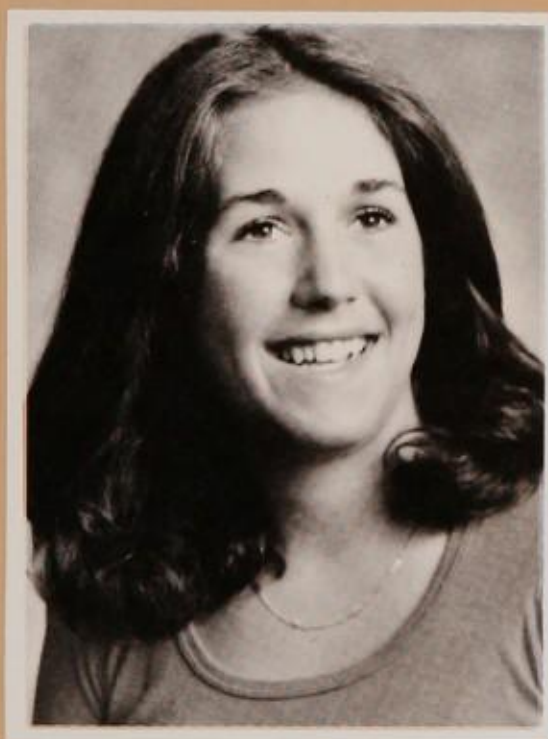

Rejoice forward out this feeling
Ten tone summers long
We go round and round and round
Until we pick it up again

Times flies, on and on it goes
Thru the setting sun
Carry round and round and round
Until it comes to carry you home.

Sally Wogan

The present happy moments will soon be good ole memories.

Lisa Woodruff

I look to the sea reflections in the waves spark my memories; some happy, some sad,
I think of childhood friends and the dreams
we had.

Styx

Christina Ybiernas

I'm like a child who's set free
At the fun fair
Every ride invites me
And it's unfair
Saying that I only get my one share
Doesn't seem just
I should live as I must
If they'd give me the time . . .

So as you go to find yourself,
Don't look too hard,
You may pass yourself by,
Reaching too high,
Wanting the other side of life.
And as you go to take your place,
Don't go too fast,
Just pretend there's no end,
make yourself last
Till the other side of life.
One day you'll find
Your restless searching at an end,
You'll think the whole world has changed
But it's just you my friend . . .

Farewell Providence

We say goodbye.
We say farewell.
We say so long,
to one and all.

The time has come
for us to go,
so we must leave,
so we can grow.

Our thoughts and memories
shall all stay
at the place,
where we worked and played.

We shall think of all we left behind,
classes and places;
but most remembered
shall be the faces.

Everything we've seen and heard shall stay locked in our minds.
It shall endure all tests,
even the true test of time.

Kal Desjardins

Farewell Seniors

With one more look at you
I could learn to tame the clouds
And let the sun shine through
Leave a troubled past and I might start anew
I'll solve the mysteries if you're the prize
Refresh these tired eyes

With one more look at you
I might overcome the anger
That I've learned to know
Find a peace of mind I lost so long ago
Your gentle touch has made me strong again
And I belong again

For when you look at me
I'm everything and more that I had dreamed I'd be
My spirit feels a promise
I won't be alone
We'll love and live more
Love and Live forever

With one more look at you
I'd learn to change the stars
And change our fortunes too
I'd have the constellations paint your portrait too
So all the world might share this wondrous sight
The world could end each night
with one more look at you
with one more look at you
I want one more look at you

"Though classified as the 'school newspaer', I consider Vista to be a 'literary periodical.' Unlike nost newspapers, Vista only comes out five times a year. What Vista lacks in frequency it makes up for in its writing, both creative and informative.

The Vista's staff consists of two editors, a business manager and about two dozen writers and photographers. I'd like to thank each and everyone who made Vista a success this year."

Here we have Tim Waters' favorite way of getting around — in style. (Tim likes to do things in a big way). Not your economy station wagon, but it sure holds a lot of people. A lot of Tim too.

This pictorial essay depicts but a few Providences' distinguished Put-Put members. There are many Mustangs, V.W.'S, Fords, Volvos, B.M.W.'s, and Chevis that were'nt able to show up for their pictures due to previous engagements. However, they do not go forgotten.

Bob Furlong stands proudly by his Chevy baby, grinning like an alligator in the sun. Dig those cool shades, Bob.

THE PUT-PUT CLUB

This fine M.G. Sprite belongs to Robert Tamayo, who doesn't trust it to the hectic parking maneuvers of many of our members. Some would say that he's not adventure-some, but the 2:45 p.m. rush hour would teach anyone a lesson in parking.

Ron Sarquiz really gets around . . . on his Suzuki, he doesn't have to hassel with traffic.

Certain people break for animals, and other people break for children, but nuts like Lizz Flores break for gnomes. There's one in every crowd, and Lizz is candidate for Nut President at Prov.

"Once again the Esprit has captured its students and staff, their activities and work, the places and people, the events and faces which made '78-'79 like no other year. All of us can be grateful to the moderator and staff of this book which preserves in word and photo memories to grow on and spirit to build on. We ought to be grateful as well to each other: to all the people who touched our lives during this past school year and so helped us to grow. May this Esprit deepen this spirit of thankfulness."

The Girls' Athletic Association, GAA, is a club of industrious young ladies who support the sports program at PHS. They help by having bake sales, salad bars, and smorgasbords. Sometimes the money earned goes toward camping trips, intermural trophies, ski trip and other goodies.

This year the Drama club presented three full-length productions, participated in two play festivals, sponsored a school dance, held a candy sale, and gave an awards banquet. The disco dance was both a social and financial success. The fall play was well received by the student body and school community alike. With this, the Drama Club ended another resoundingly successful season!!

The talented Chorus group for 1978-79 performed several Christmas concerts at interesting places. They worked at Esther Pariseau Pavilion, Laurel Plaza, and of course at the popular Providence High School.

These musicians display their dedication by using a lot of their free time for practicing. Their rewards come from bringing joy and entertainment to others.

Pride is a word that these Providence recruiters can relate to. They are a group of earnest people that visit local grade schools to give supportive facts about Providence. Questioning newcomers receive a warm hand from these pleasing people.

RECRUITMENT CLUB

Can you guess who the Ski Club moderator is??

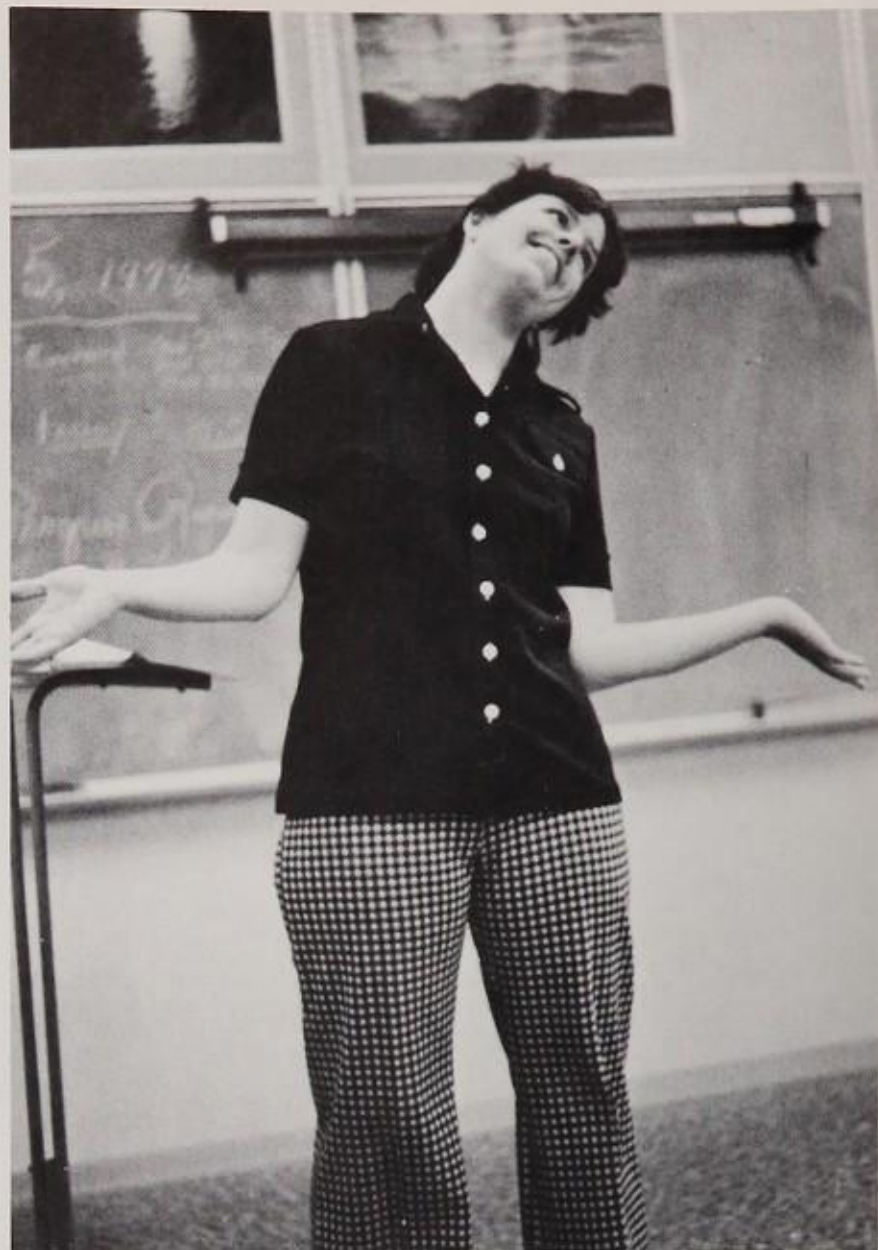

This year Providence added a new club for the "young and the restless." If you haven't guessed yet, it's the Ski Club. The members of this club display a great enthusiasm for the slopes and claim that skiing is believing!! President: Scot Sorrentino, V.-P.: Rolf Wiik, Secretary: Meredith Parmelee. By the way, Sr. Joel on the left is the moderator.

SKI CLUB

The Liturgy Club is an "un-club." It's purpose is mainly to praise God through planning our Student Body liturgies. The students who generously give their time are involved in planning songs for our masses. Each mass has a theme and care is taken to choose selections fitting the theme.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Providence couldn't have a better girls team than the successful one of this year. Our valuable players are: Eileen K., Darleen S., Karen K., Diane M., Sue G., Heidi H., Cynthia H., Robin Z., Frances P., Erin B., Gina R., Linda A., and Cecilia P.

Events

FRESHMAN-SENIOR PALS

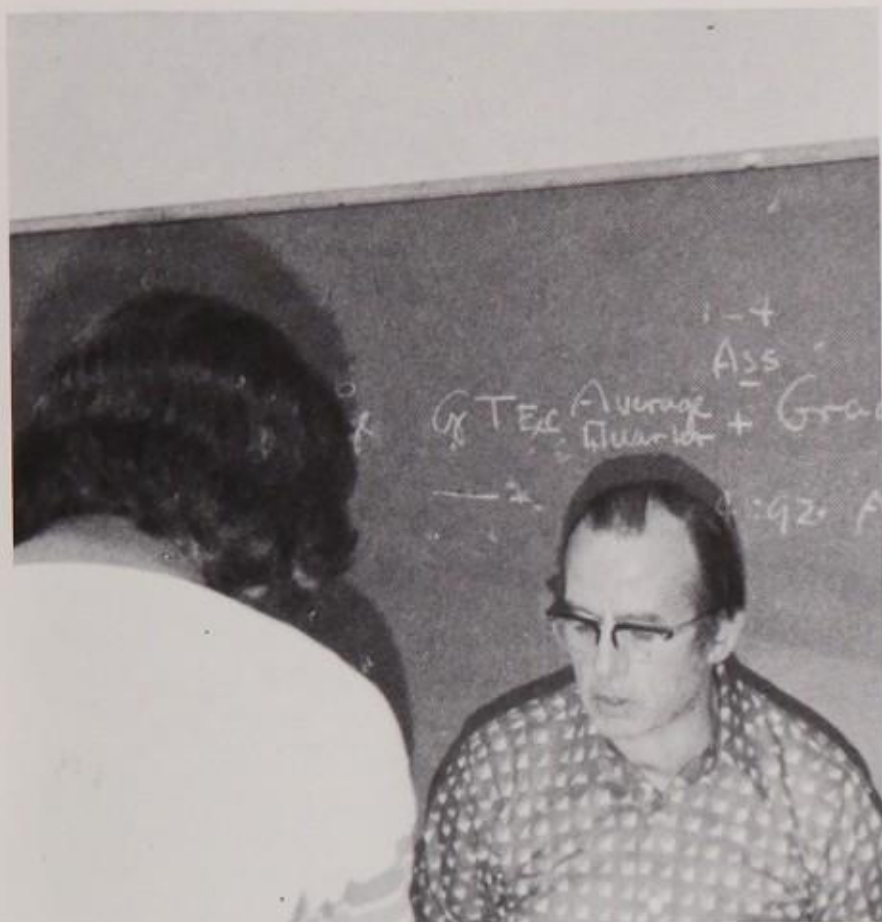

Above: Providence takes in many new freshman each year, and the seniors are responsible for making them feel welcome. This year the seniors took out their "little brothers and sisters" out to lunch. It was an amusing time for both classes.

Left: Patty L. asks, "gulp! Are you my LITTLE brothers??"

FINALS!

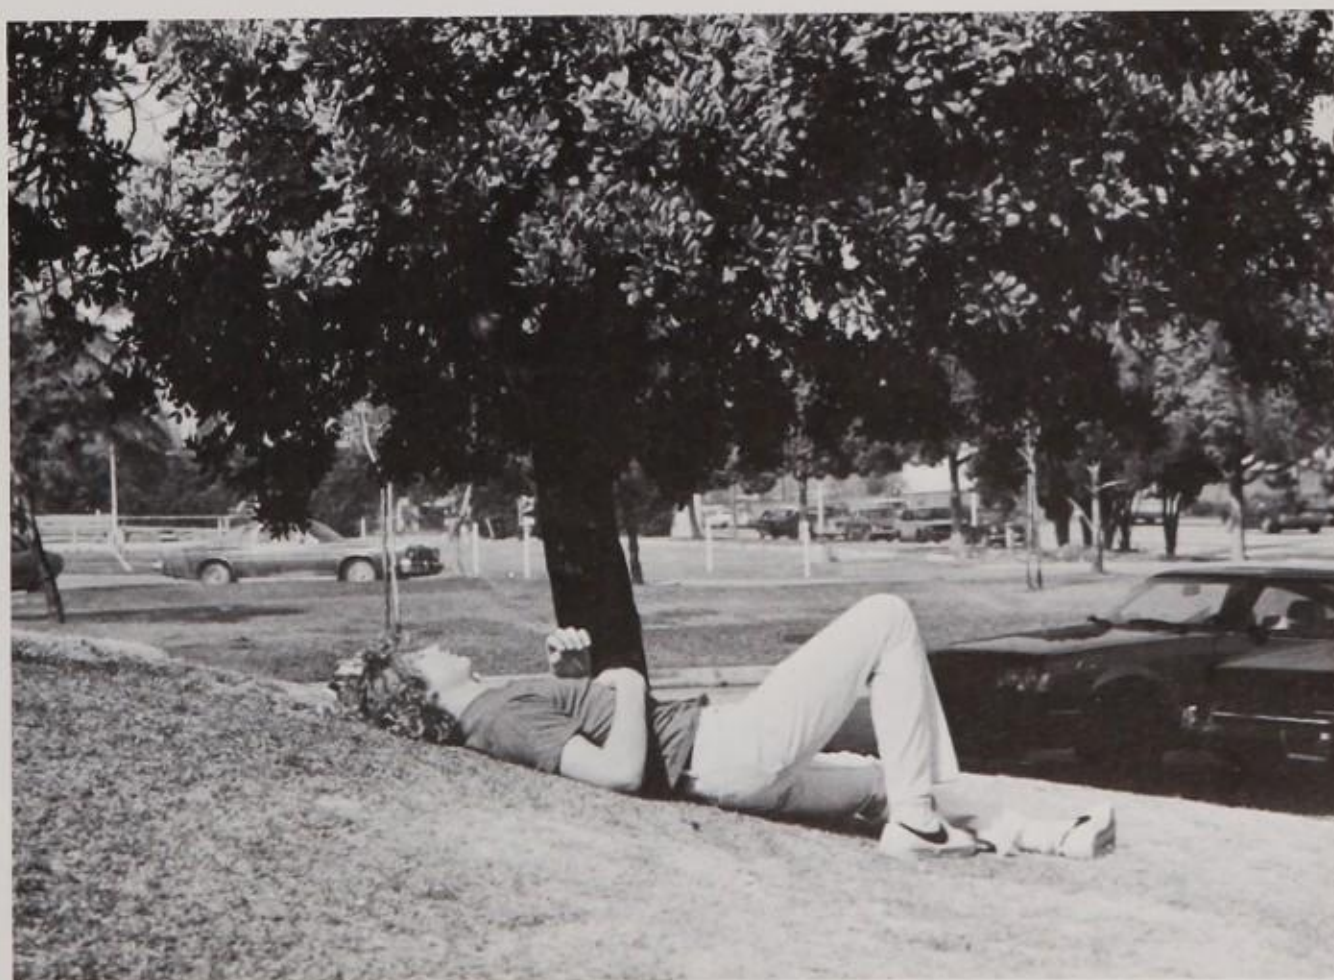

Above: Mr. Armas chats amiably with a student.

Above: Teachers dislike finals as much as the kids do, yet they both always seem to pull through.

Right: Tired boy is sure happy finals are finally over.

WALK-A-THON

Above: Students are struggling through the last mile.

The Walk-A-Thon, a fund-raiser for the school, was a smashing success. Many participated in this somewhat tiring event and experienced both the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. Ouch!

COSTUME CONTEST

Left: With faces like these on Halloween, who wouldn't jump out of their seat."

Above: On Valentine's Day, lovers were certainly not forgotten. One of the clubs sponsored a "Valogram Day" where students (and faculty) were able to send cookies and notes special delivery to their heart-throbs.

VALOGRAMS

WINTER PLAY

"Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon" is a very unusual play, for the young adults who are its main characters are physically handicapped. However, this tragicomical play does not ask the audience to pity or feel sorry for these young people. On the contrary, from the very opening moments, the audience quickly learns that Junie Moon, Arthur, and Warren are full of spunk and that they are filled with determination to succeed in life despite their problems. They do not allow themselves to become overwhelmed by their handicaps; rather, they fight their limitations. Junie Moon was assaulted (before the time of the play) by a young man whom she dated; she is scarred, both physically and psychologically, and she builds a wall around herself behind which she protects herself from the love of everyone.

The play makes the point that perhaps we are all handicapped in one manner or another in life. The audience leaves the play with the resolution that it is not so much the size of the rock which we push uphill that is significant as is the SPIRIT with which we push it.

"Tell me that you love me, Junie Moon."

Warren, who is paralyzed and wheelchair-ridden, searches for friendship and beauty in life.

Although the characters are hindered by their various handicaps, not one of them is defeated.

This year's Esprit band gave the students something to dance about.

This Christmas, the Esprit Club sponsored a holiday delight. The 1978 Esprit ball, called "Moonlight and Roses," was enjoyed by many. The students were enchanted with the band and its boogying tunes, and of course the 1978 queen, Heather Corrie, couldn't have been happier! Not only are these dances favorable fund-raisers, they are appreciated by a lot of fun-loving folks as well!!

Lizz F. and her escort were surprised to be on court.

Esprit Ball

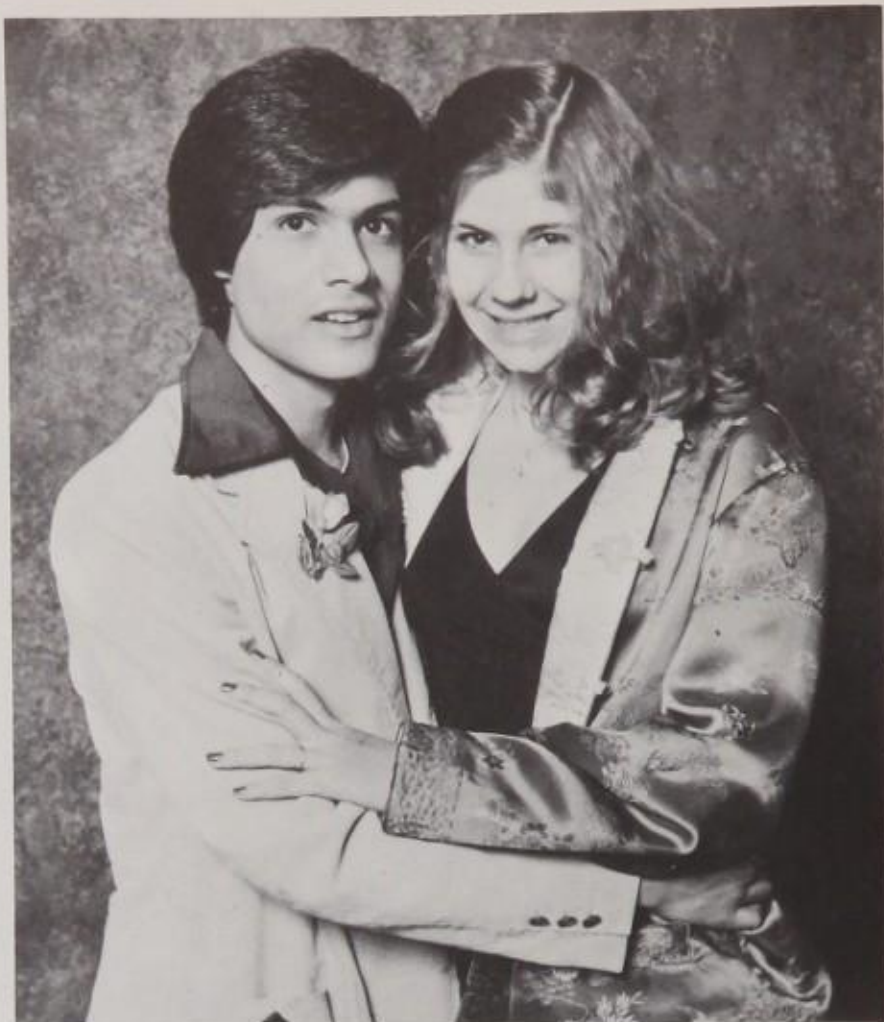

Alexis and her date go together like two peas in a pod.

Who are these people, and why are they smiling so much.?!

Alicia has Saturday Night Fever . . . watch out.

But seriously folks, John Deghi rocks out.

Mellow Joe B. sure is glad he invited his date to this wild and crazy dance.

"It's a marvelous night for a moon dance . . ."

FAVORITES

Listening to Mantis was something to dance about. (Good point.)

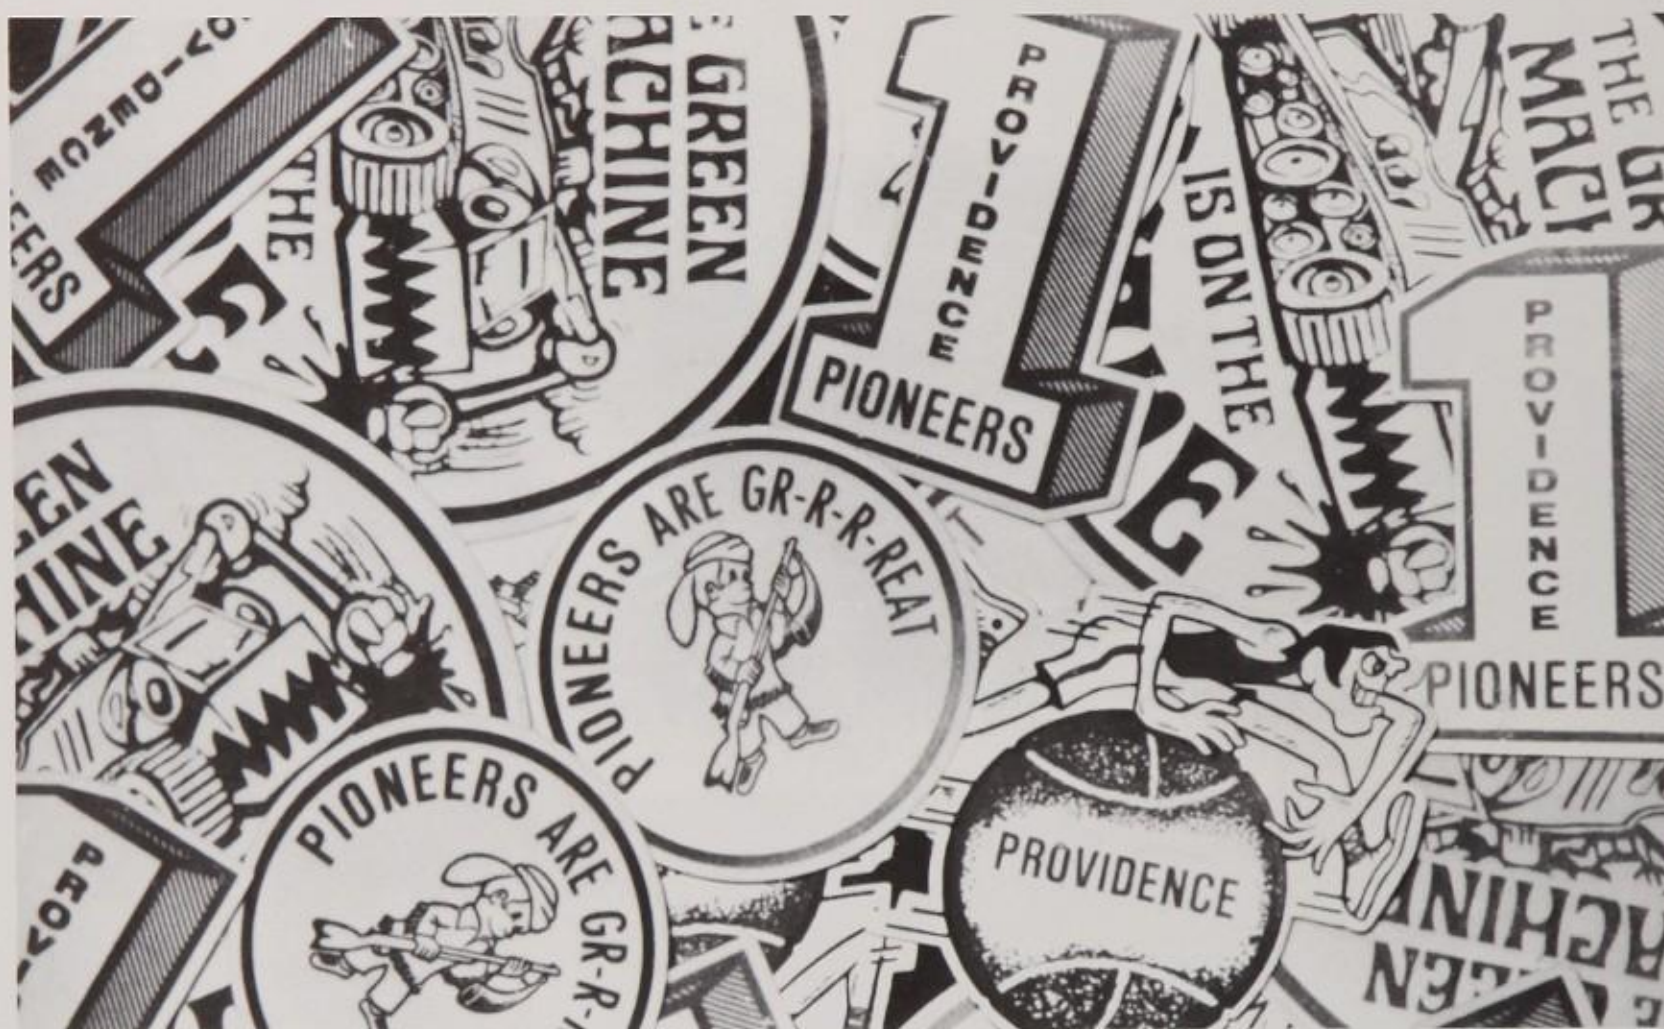

Claudia Shumacher and her date Rueben enjoying themselves.

A very happy Esprit Queen, Heather Corrie, and her proud date.

SPIRITED EVENTS

The events never end in regards to sports. There are many types of games to watch and support, ranging from tennis to basketball. The team players always do their best!

VALENTINE DANCE

The Pep Club always seems to put on such tantalizing dances, and this year's Valentine Dance was no exception!

Left: Seniors still find fun at the dance. Right: Who could resist giving their hand to Patty M. to stamp?

Above: Yvonne Trudeau worked hard putting the show together. The Standing Co. put on a great show.

Left: The group prize was given to a group that danced to Steve Martin's, "King Tut."

MEAD HALL

A new addition this Year, Mead Hall is a gathering for those who love the spirit of the Renaissance. Mr. O'Palko, a talented teacher sponsors the event. Those certainly were the days . . .

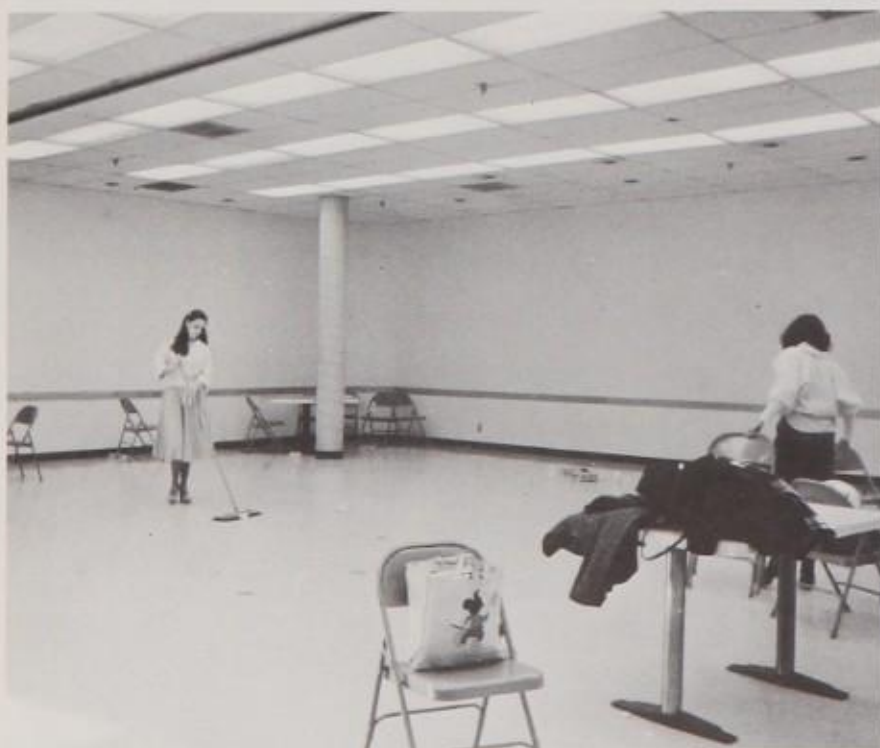

Every Day Activities

Above: Mr. Veta giving detention. Right: You can often see Mr. Vega doing unusual things.

"I just detest lab sometimes." In the science lab, the students learn fascinating facts.

Above: Mellow Seniors hang out in the parking lot after school.

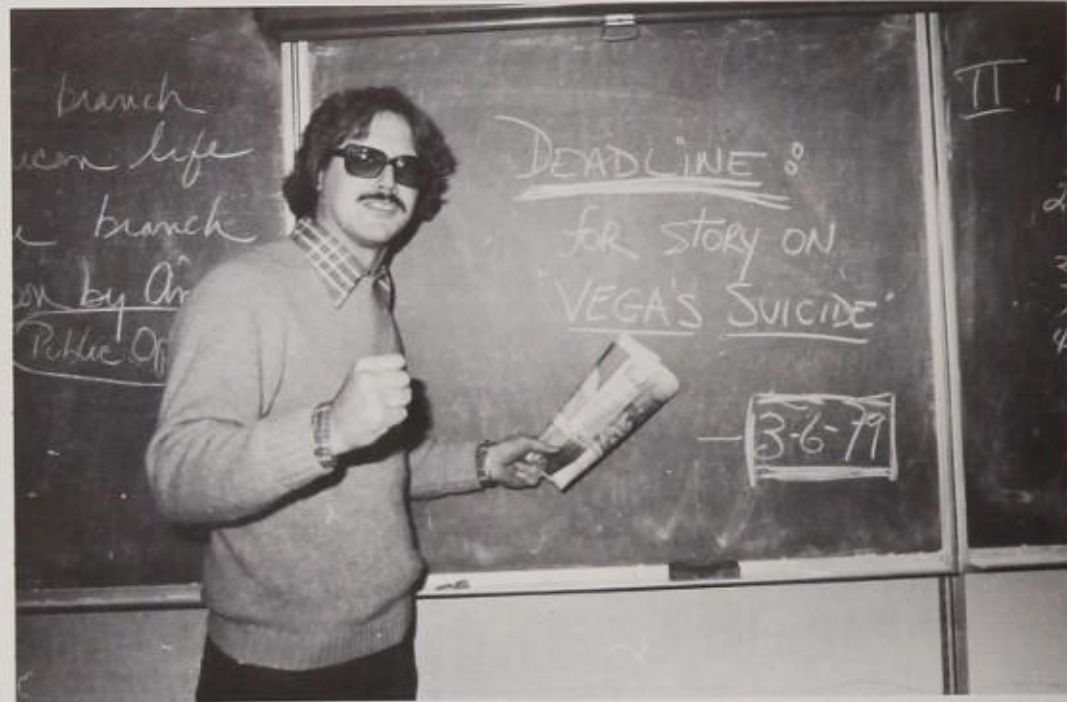

Another common activity at Providence is hanging around the Multi-Purpose room where homework, games and eating lunches are performed.

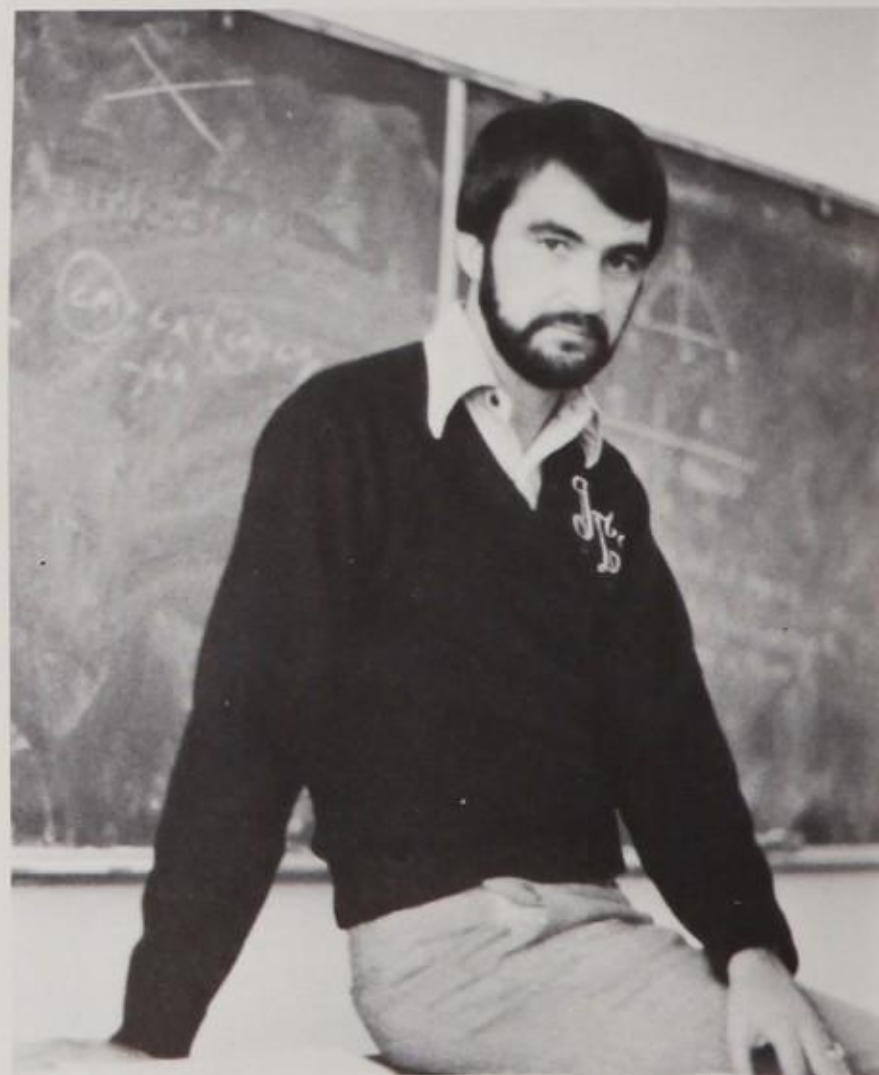

Faculty Funnies

Miss Wyatt cannot decide whether to sneeze, or yawn. She looks like she's doing both at the same time. Mr. Wood has his own ideas on a special course syllabus.

Hey, now, now, no pictures today, not tomorrow, no! Here, take my hand, thats all you get.

Smile like this, and you'll get an A from me any 'ol time.

Mr. Armas' tie accidentally got caught in the hydrochloric acid and it's slowly eating through to his bellybutton.

"Ah poor Yorick . . . I knew him well . . .

Coach, do I have to run another ten laps around the parking lot again?

The only reason that this man is smiling is that he just busted four guys for smoking in the bathroom. Jolly fellow, and such Big White Teeth!

Daily Doodads

Some people are inventive and bring a tasty sack lunch. Others who prefer to be brave forage for their edibles in the so called Food Room. It is not uncommon to have someone who is very hungry taste your food, before you do.

Omygod, Bazooka Joe has struck again! He has claimed another hopless victim in the halls of Providence High. This girl now has a permanent bubble formed on her lips. The fiend . . .

Listen, have you heard the latest gossip . . . Oh you're not listening to me! Say, have YOU heard the latest gossip?

The legend at Providence is that wherever they may be, in class, on the lawn, even on the courts Sophomore girls dream of the Prom.

NOTES FROM ALISON

Being here at Providence has given me a fine chance to expand on my capabilities, and to get into what I really want to do, learn. I don't want to limit myself to academic requirements only, but to extend myself into many fields of knowledge. I've been able to start doing just this by having support and responsibility given to me, by my teachers and friends. I'm very grateful to all who have helped us put this book together, and have given up their time and effort, I wish that those who read this annual will remember that there is a child within all of us, and that if we let that child live, we will begin seeing the wonders of our world, flowering . . . right in front of our eyes.

A.S.

AND LIZZ . . .

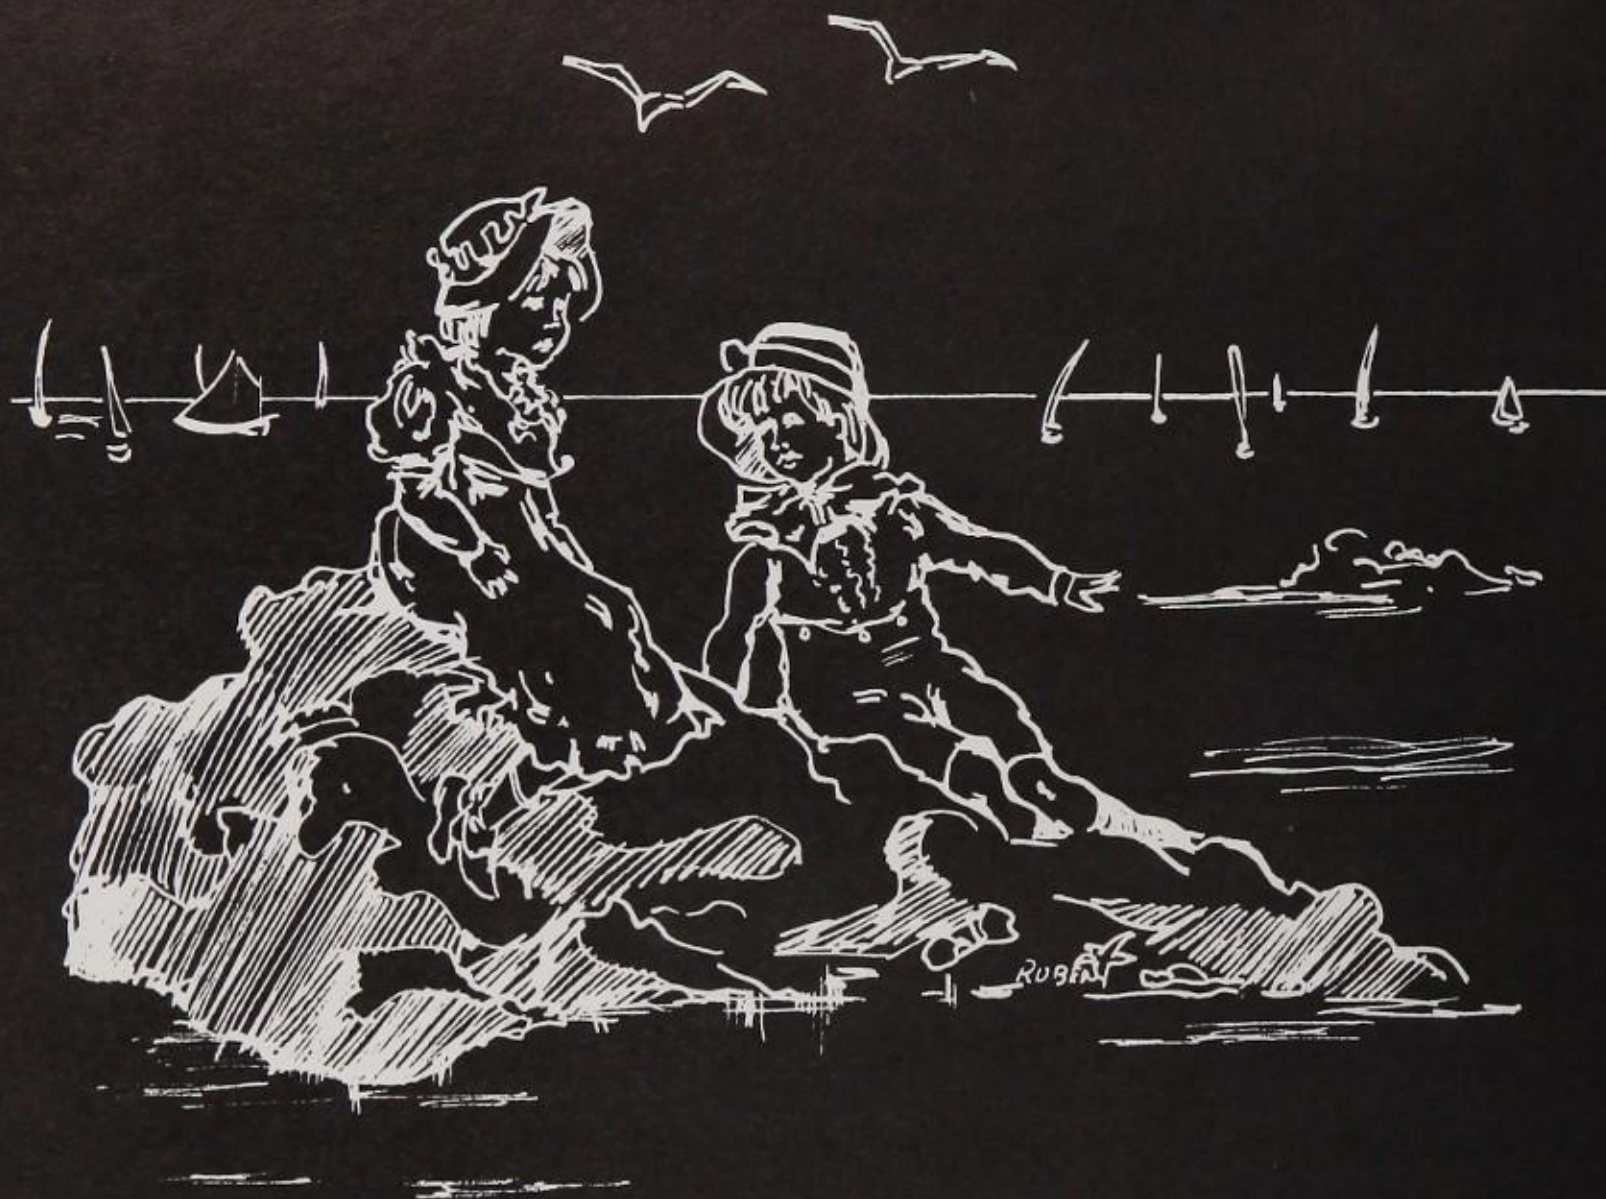

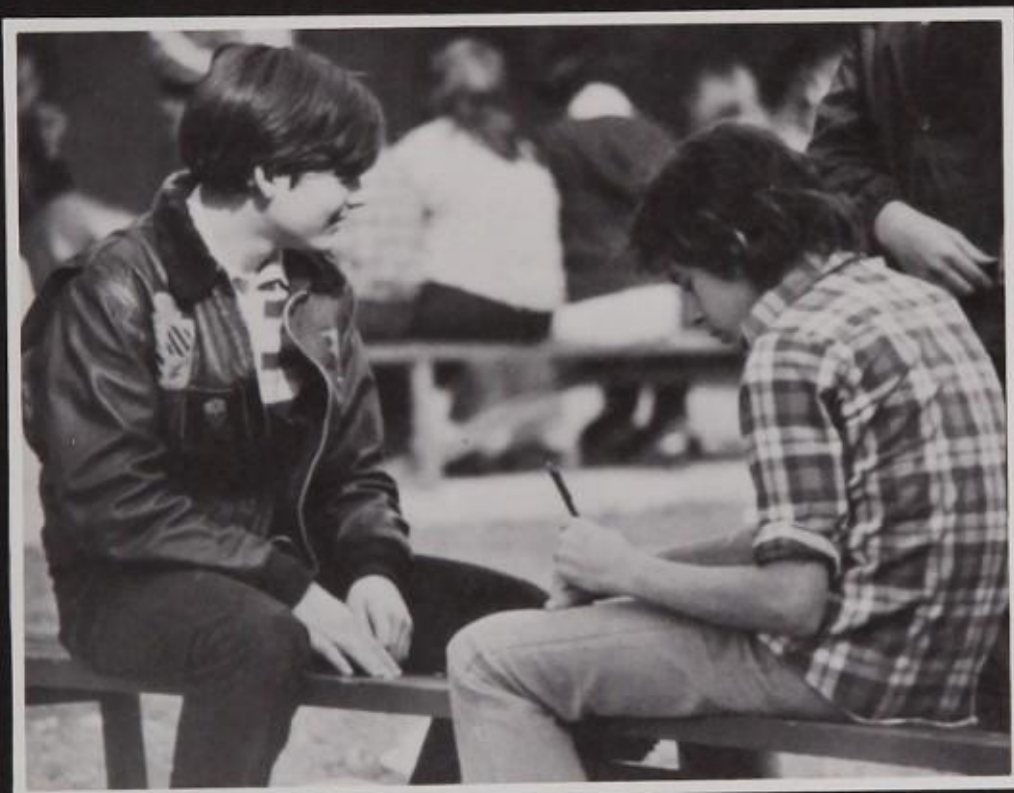

It is difficult for me to put all my thoughts in one paragraph; I could write a book about everything Providence has done for me. Providence, you've watched me grow to who I am today, and I'm proud to say that I'm ready for life. Being editor has been hard but worthwhile. Thanks to all who have helped out!

"People stay just a little bit longer, we want to play — just a little bit longer . . ."

Extras

Patty's Page

A.S.B. President, Patricia Marinelli relaxes for a quiet moment.

"The time seems to pass by so quickly and all that we've done and said soon becomes a memory. I'll never forget high school and all the fun that goes with it. These four years have been better than I ever expected.

Thanks to all of the officers for all that you've done to support me. To all my friends who always stick by me and are always there when I need them. To Kieth for all the patience and help you've given me. Last of all I would like to thank the most important people, my family. They made me what I am."

"There are places I remember all my life though some have changed, some forever not for better. Some are gone and some remain. All these places and have their meanings with lovers friends I can still recall. In my life, I love you more."

In the depth of your hopes and dreams
lies your silent knowledge of the beyond. And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow, your heart dreams of Spring. Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate to eternity.

Forever yours,
The Senior Class

SERENITY

Your hearts know in silence the secrets of the days and nights. But your ears thirst for the sound of your heart's knowledge. You would know in words that which you have always known in thought. You would touch with your fingers the naked body of your dreams.
